TOPIC: DREAM OF A REFUGEE

A HOME THEY DREAM OF

A Refugee ...

The one who lost their homes

The one who's fell to the worst

The one who became a lone wanderer.

But why? The wars brought us peace

Disasters were ~~overcome~~ ^{faced} together

Human greed has no bounds

But why, the innocent suffers?

War has torn lives apart

Families fell apart, Homes were lost

Cries of the victims echoed

throughout the cold silent battlefield

Fate strikes them without any mercy

Renders them homeless and penniless

They wander around the foreign land

In search for hope of Life

The very Life they dream of

A home they own

Where they lay their heavy shoulder

At the end of every day.

They hope for the old wounds to heal

For a new life to blossom

For parted families to reconcile

And to put an end to their nomadic life.

Their journey follows with hope

A hope to regain the lost security

A hope to be recognised again

And not to be a loner anymore.

They hope for a peaceful life

Filled with laughter of their kids

Happily growing up in their homes
In love, care and security

The solemn life gnawed away their sanity
Bit by bit dated life out of their souls
Until they became empty shells
Without the Life they dreamed of.

And their journey continues
Until they find their lost homes.
