EDITORIAL

A School magazine literally is the mirror of the trend set of a school and this is more true with our school GHSS OACHIRA. This is an attempt which tempted the little kite members 2019 for making a magazine. Our sincere thanks to Headmistress Smt. Tharadevi. J & Senior assistant Sri. Manikantan. P for giving us guidance and help in all the activities. This magazine was compiled and improved immeasurably by the generous assistance of s.i.t.c and little kite mistress Ms. Chameli .P, little kite master Sri. Abhinand. A of our school. Little kite members express our deep gratitude to all those who worked behind this magazine.

MUSIC EVERYWHERE

Just close your eyes and listen to the ensemble of sounds around you-the chirping of a bird on your window-sill, the screeching of the vehicles on the street, the fleeting sound of an aeroplane, the vegetable hawker crooning the names of the vegetables. We are all surrounded by sounds like these, so much that sometimes we completely forget about them. But each of these sounds has a distinct effect on us; some seem to be pleasant to our ears while others not so pleasant. The sounds that produce their own melody create music and they can be found in abundance in nature. The soft whistling of the wind, the river rippling across the mountains, the night time lullabies of the cricket, these are all forms of music

MY SCHOOL BUS

School buses should be painted in yellow. Do you know why?

Yellow is a bright colour and can easily be seen from a distance even in dull foggy weather.

School bus yellow was brought into use in the United States of America in 1939.

The colour is now called the NATIONAL SCHOOL BUS GLOSSY YELLOW.

It was originally called NATIONAL SCHOOL BUSCHROME

In 1939 Dr. FRANK. W. CYR , a professor at columbia university, Newyork held a meeting to decide on school bus building standards including the colour of bus.

He came to be called the 'father of the yellow school bus'

FAILURE IS THE STEPPING STONE TO SUCCESS

Life is a long journey. One has to face many ups and downs while going through the journey of life. All of us experience failures in life in examinations. Great leaders, Statesmen, scientists, generals, writers and soldiers all have to drink the bitter cup of failure. One should not lose heart when failure comes. Failures in our lives are very important because they teach us new lessons everytime. These failures make us get success. There are some others who rebound like the rubber ball after their fail. One should find out the cause for his failure to be ready to fight again and win. If he is confident he can make his failure inspire him to fight vigorously. If he has strong will power, his failures may turn into success. Without failure, man becomes easy going and self satisfied. He gives up effort and becomes stagnant. Greatness is only achieved by meeting failures.

BETTER BEND THAN BREAK

Two goats came face to face while crossing a narrow bridge. "Let me pass" said one of them. "Never, you get out of my way" said the other one. They quarrelled with each other and lost their balance.

They fell into the stream down below and died. A few days another two goats came face to face while crossing the same bridge. Both these goats were wise and patient.

They made way for each other to cross the narrow bridge. Both reached their home safely.

THE LIZARD AND THE SAINT

There was a wicked saint who lived in a village. Although saints were very pious this saint was the opposite. He was very cunning and selfish. He was not humble and kind. He used to chase away anyone approaching his hut. People did not like him. But they were afraid of his curses. The saint was arrogant with his powers

One day, a lizard happened to fall from a nearby tree into his hut. The saint turned very angry. He shouted at the lizard, "Get out my house immediately, or I shall curse you". The lizard ran away to save his life

Not many days later the same lizard slipped from the roof and fell again. This time the saint could not control his anger. He took a big stone and threw it at the lizard. The lizard was very active. He ran fast and escaped from the stone. However, the saint was not that lucky. The stone missed the lizard and rebounded. It struck the saint right on his forehead and the saint fell down immediatly blood pouring from the wound

Now the saint thought, “Had I been kind-hearted I wouldn’t have thrown the stone ,I need not have been hurt”
