Wandering Emotions

Clouds drifting lazy and light,
Tiny dust specks dancing,
Sun shone dappling all bright,
Like seasons all changing,
Ominous clouds sudden gathered and fought;

Holding hands with solitude, I stand.
Contemplating the past made me mourn,
My heart sank to the bottom, I find.
Past chasing like shadows till dawn,
Oh! shadows, will this remain till rust?

Like a leaf in the wind,
Everhaunting shadows of memories, wandered with me.
Amid all unhealful wounds to find,
A secluded scar drooped free.
Taking me miles up to find,

My youth wailing like a lost child, there any?

My whole future being a dare,

I weep, those instantaneous ~~deeds~~ of honey,

To make me perceive, none to care.

All hectic with own deeds for money,

Alone in a sea coast, paying all strings.

My life wacked, only a wage to watch.

Hope hopped away, only a rope to bring.

Yet, my strength never drained, I fetch.

Like the claffodits hyping for spring.

Inuigorated the visions of faith,

Time, is a present, for present days it only wait.

Memories must fade, plans to proceed forth.

Shadows must change, copying present to fate.

Fetching up all my wandering emotions ~~forth~~ beneath,

Heyy! It doesn't cost much to hope.
