GHOST BUSTERS

Do you believe in “Ghost”? The answer may be yes or no. This is an interesting matter. Let us go through it. A building named RAM HOTEL was built around the 1850's. The owner of the building had committed suicide after which it was abandoned. The new owner took it up from the government and converted it into a good hotel though its best to maintain the creepy look of the building to give the customers a thrilling stay. It was just one year later the disturbance started. Some saw shadows touching on their chairs, the kitchen was found disordered in the morning with plates broken and everything upset.

By hearing do you get confused of “GHOST”. No, there are only ideas or imaginations of people who bring their life in films and in books. Today we have all the facilities in the world at our finger tips. But we want never that one development does not stop here we'll keep on this with pace and move forward. So we now at present have many things unknown to us one such concept is that of “GHOST”.

Dark scary figure came in while a beautiful lady who suddenly formed into a scary figure with long hair, blood dripping teeth and long fingernails ready to pierce into your flesh or eight footed person walking on air etc. are the pictures that cross your mind when we hear of ghosts. They see their favourite character alive and in motion with all just mere tricks played by their brain.

According to the concept of ghost depends mostly on the circumstances and condition you experience them. There are just illusions. Reality lies far away.

PRINCESS OF THE GREEN MOUNTAIN

A Long long time ago there was an enchanted palace in the heart of a deep, Dense, dark forest. One day two women lost their way in that jungle one of them was named Anjana and the other was name Pooja. Pooja said: where are we? Anjana said: we have been walking all day, and we have not been able to find a way out of this forest. How can we ever get home? Says pooja: don't worry mate! I am tired and hungry. It is getting dark. Let us rest for tonight. I am certain we shall find a way out of here in the morning. Said Anjana: who knows what wild animals lurk in the densdarkness of the palace. We cannot sleep on the ground! There! We should be safe up there. The tree is big enough and its branches are wide enough for us to rest comfortably on them and we shall be quite safe from wild animals there. So hungry. Tired and scared the two women spent the night on a tree to keep safe from wild animals.

In the morning when the first ray of the sun shone from their vantage point on the tree they saw the palace and they headed towards it. Pooja said: what in the world is this?

Anjana said: right in the middle of the forest? Pooja said: maybe we can find some one there who will way out of this palace? Anjana said: and give us and drink! Pooja said: let's go

Soon the women were at the door of the palace. There was a bell around. One of them found and rung it. As soon as the bell rung, the door opened. Astonished the two women walked inside. The guard said: welcome! You must be tired and hungry! Sit down that guy a table filling food then two women ate then Pooja fell are sleep, and the servant came then Anjana and Pooja. And so this continued for along time. Many men went to the enchanted palace and were made deep never ending slumber.

One day a prince got lost in the same forest near the same tree and in the morning, he saw the enchanted door and headed towards it. As soon as he rung the bell, the door opened and the prince entered. The guard said: You must be tired and hungry! Sit down that prince are you? And what are you doing in the deep, dark forest? That guy said: why do you brother? You are a traveller.

I am certain that all you wish for is to reach home as soon as possible. Prince said: your demeanour is regal and compassionate. Lady are you in any kind of trouble? If anything I can help you. Guy said: why won't you rest? You are tired and hungry? Rest a little first. Prince said: I know that all is well with you. Why is a lady like you all alone in this dark forest? Please tell me. I know something is wrong. I shall not eat or rest till you tell me how to help you!

As soon as the prince said these words, everything changed. Suddenly the guy became a princess and a hundred of men came to this palace. Seeking food for the prince but not one of them was bothered enough to ask the princess for help. Until today! And by such a simple act of concern you have broken the spell. I suffered for sixteen years. Prince said. A spell? princess said before I say anything I have a task. They have all reached their homes and are safe. Prince said: what is going on here? Princess said: everything is fine every thing tomorrow. But now I have to go. I shall be back tomorrow morning. Take care of him while I am gone. I will see you at 9:00 am tomorrow. Make sure you are awake at 9:00 am then good bye.

All night the prince kept thinking of the enchanted girl. He had deeply and helplessly in love with her and could not wait in the morning to see her again. But some one had some trick. As the servant was getting the prince coat ready. He put a prick that would make the prince fall a sleep. Princess said: are you my sweet heart? Where is the prince? Servant said: I am tired to get him ready but he refuses to wake up and go to the Princess said: what? How is that possible? Servant said: he is asleep. then where is he? see for yourself? Princess said: if I find him I shall be back same time tomorrow and if he is not ready he shall never be able to see me again! Servant said: as you say. My lady! The prince was horrified to learn that he had been asleep when the prince had come. He resolved to stay awake that entire night but at day break the same thing happened to him again. The servant put the prick once more in his coat and tricked the prince into falling asleep again as the princess came. Princess said: where is he? Why isn't he waiting for me? Servant said: he refused to wake up my lady! Princess said: why should this be? Servant said: well if he is not asleep. he will go to the forest. He reached a path of thorns and his cloak was caught by them. Unable to free himself. He slashed his cloak with a sword and as the sun's light fell upon the blade. The words of the Prince said: where is princess of green mountains prince wondered in the forest. Wondering who would the green mountains. One night: he came upon a hut. He went to it and knocked... someone says from door: if you want food, knock thrice. If you want a knock thrice more but if you want knowledge wait knowledge do you seek? Prince said: I want to know green mountains are! monk said: well. For that you come in. Have some food. Rest for the night and I shall open my book of everything and tell you where the green mountain are! Do you agree? prince said: I shall do as you ask me to. Just tell me where the green mountain are! Monk said: very well come in! So the prince ate with the monk in the monk's house.

At the first ray of dawn the prince was up. He went to the monk and said: Aah! You are up already. Prince said: you will tell me where the green mountain are! Monk said: I am a determined man! Very well monk a book pick then. Monk said: no mentioned of green mountain here! Prince said: that can't be! I have met the princess of the green mountain. Monk said: Hmm... well don't lose heart! In the book of everything I will tell you how to get answer for questions this book. Prince said: Wait that would be...page number 12,367... Aah! He went to the monk. Prince said: birds? Monk said: well birds fly high above the mountains. Over valleys and mountain! If there is any place to hide, the birds will know it! I shall call all the birds of the skies and as they came from at least one of them shall have come from the green mountains prince said: then to eat! Please do it! So the monk came out of his little hut and used some scared spells and the air was full of birds of all kinds. Who landed before him? Prince asked each of them where had come from? But not one of them came from the green mountain...

one by one all the birds flew off? Monk said: I don't know if the green mountain exists? Prince said: it must exist! I have met the princess of the green mountain!

After a bird came there then said: you called me, why did it take you so long? Bird said: there is such great magic on the green mountain that I couldn't hear you. Monk said: you are from the green mountain? Bird said: yes, I am. I am getting named to the royal wizard's son tomorrow. Monk said: poor thing the prince! Years ago the wizard had a daughter. He wanted her to marry his son! The bird told the prince the story. What happened [prince and wizard son]

And tomorrow is the first day after the sixteenth day. As promised, the prince must marry the wizard's son. Monk said: bird! Please, please take me to her! It is I who should marry her! Bird: how will I carry you over my back and how do you fly? Then prince take a sword then bird said: this is an enchanted sword. Draw a flying carpet with it and then I shall lead you to the green mountain. The prince did as he was told. Then a flying carpet appeared. prince said: thank you sir! Thank you so much! Monk said: you will need proof son! Take this this bag contains magic dust. Who ever you sprinkle with will have to speak the truth. Who ever you sprinkle with will have to speak the truth. ascended to chariot.

The chariot flew high over mountains and valleys and the prince saw them. The green mountain right before him was the one where the princess said is right now!

Wizard say: princess! You cannot say no. you are my son. He waited for you fair and square for 16 years.

On the spot prince said: he did wait but not for me. Wizard said: what do you mean? The servant you saw and the prick you gave him? Wizard said: stop. I need proof then evidence give by monk throwing the staff. I says believe. Prince said: And how do we take the staff from you so that you can never do any thing evil again? I will just take my staff so the wizard was put in jail and the princess and the prince were married in grand spender both at last. Prince said: mm love! Thank you for believing in me. not been for your sword i should have never been here. Princess said: when the servant told me you were here I would not believe that you did not love me. So I knew that you would find a way to come to me! At night! True love does find you no matter where you are.

And the prince and the princess of the green mountain were happily ever after.

INDEPENDENCE DAY

Its a well known fact that the Britishers ruled India for more than two centuries. We were not free during that time. All the people of our nation wanted to live in freedom. So they fought against them. Finally India became independent on 15 August 1947.

To mark this occasion of getting Independence we the people of India have been celebrating 15 August every years as the Independence Day. All the Indians, irrespective of caste, religion and state are eagerly waiting for this auspicious day to be celebrated. All feel glorious on this day.

It is celebrated with immense joy and enthusiasm in the capital of our country. The Prime Minister who host the National flag on the Red Fort gives his message to the nation and to the world. As he salutes the National flag the National Anthem is sung.

It is also extolled in every state capitals, district head quarters, every schools and colleges. Message are conveyed in every place.

ARTICLE 370

HAPPENED

AND WHY IT MATTERS.....

What's happened now?

In the first few days of August, there were signs of something afoot in Kashmir.

Tens of thousands of additional Indian troops were deployed, a major Hindu pilgrimage was cancelled, schools and colleges were shut, tourists were ordered to leave, telephone and internet services were suspended and regional political leaders were placed under house arrest.

But most of the speculation was that Article 35A of the Indian constitution, which gave some special privileges to the people of the state, would be scrapped.

The government then stunned everyone by saying it was revoking nearly all of Article 370, which 35A is part of and which has been the basis of Kashmir's complex relationship with India for some 70 years.

What does Article 35A say? And its significance.

Article 35A of the constitution allows the legislature of Indian-administered Kashmir to define the state's "permanent residents" and what distinguishes them. It applies to all of Indian-administered Kashmir, including Jammu and Ladakh.

All identified residents are issued a permanent resident certificate, which entitles them to special benefits related to employment, scholarships and other privileges. But the biggest advantage for permanent residents is that only they have the right to own and, therefore, buy, property in the state. It also protects the state's distinct demographic character.

Since Indian-administered Kashmir is the only Muslim-majority state in India, many Kashmiris suspect Hindu nationalist groups of encouraging Hindus to migrate to the state. This doesn't sit well with Kashmiris given their tumultuous relationship with India - there has been an armed revolt in the region against Indian rule since 1989.

How significant is Article 370?

The article allowed the state a certain amount of autonomy - its own constitution, a separate flag and freedom to make laws. Foreign affairs, defense and communications remained the preserve of the central government.

As a result, Jammu and Kashmir could make its own rules relating to permanent residency, ownership of property and fundamental rights. It could also bar Indians from outside the state from purchasing property or settling there.

The constitutional provision has underpinned India's often fraught relationship with Kashmir, the only Muslim-majority region to join India at partition.

Why did the government do it?

Prime Minister Narendra Modi and the Hindu nationalist Bhartiya Janata Party had long opposed Article 370 and revoking it was in the party's 2019 election manifesto.

They argued it needed to be scrapped to integrate Kashmir and put it on the same footing as the rest of India. After returning to power with a massive mandate in the April-May general elections, the government lost no time in acting on its pledge.

Critics of Monday's move are linking it to the economic slow down that India is currently facing - they say it provides a much-needed diversion for the government. Many Kashmiris believe that the BJP ultimately wants to change the demographic character of the Muslim-majority region by allowing non-Kashmiris to buy land there.

Although Home Minister Amit Shah's announcement in parliament on Monday came as a surprise to most Indians, it would have taken the government some preparation to arrive at the decision.

The move also fits in with Mr. Modi's desire to show that the BJP is tough on Kashmir, and Pakistan.

What's changed on the ground?

Kashmir will no longer have a separate constitution but will have to abide by the Indian constitution much like any other state.

All Indian laws will be automatically applicable to Kashmiris, and people from outside the state will be able to buy property there.

The government says this will bring development to the region.

"I want to tell the people of Jammu and Kashmir what damage Articles 370 and 35A did to the state," Mr. Shah told parliament. "It's because of these sections that democracy was never fully implemented, corruption increased in the state, that no development could take place."

The government is also moving to break up the state into two smaller, federally administered territories. One region will combine Muslim-majority Kashmir and Hindu-majority Jammu. The other is Buddhist-majority Ladakh, which is culturally and historically close to Tibet.

P Chidambaram, a senior leader in the opposition Congress Party described the decision as a -

"catastrophic step" and warned in parliament that it could have serious consequences.

"You may think you have scored a victory, but you are wrong and history will prove you to be wrong. Future generations will realize what a grave mistake this house is making today," he said

CIVILIZING AN APE

On June 26, 1931, Winthrop Kellogg, a comparative psychologist living in Florida, USA, and his wife welcomed a new arrival home: not a human baby, but a baby chimpanzee. The couple planned to raise Gua alongside their own baby boy, Donald. They wanted to find out if the chimp would grow up to behave or even think like a human.

Kellogg had dreamed of conducting such an experiment since he was a student. He was fascinated by the accounts of the Indian wolf children, who had been raised without human contact. For the next nine months, 12 hours a day and seven days a week, the Kellogg tirelessly carried out tests on Donald and Gua.

They raised the two babies in exactly the same way, in addition to conducting an exhaustive list of scientific experiments on memory, body size, reflexes, depth perception, vocalization, locomotion, etc.

For a while, Gua actually outdid Donald but she soon hit a wall especially when it came to language skills. When Donald began to imitate Gua's food bark to signal that he was hungry instead of using words, The Kellogg abruptly cut their experiment short and returned Gua to the primate centre from where she was borrowed!

THE BRAVE DUTCH BOY

The Netherlands is a country in Europe many parts of the country lie below sea level. Barriers called dykes are built to prevent sea water from entering the towns.

In a village near Haarlem, there lived a small boy called Hans Brinker. He was a very helpful boy. After school, he usually went to see an old man who lived alone. One evening, he was walking close to a dyke, singing sweetly, and passing his hands along the wall. Suddenly, his palm felt wet. He found that water was leaking through the hole. Hans knew he had to inform the people immediately. He ran up and down the road to tell someone about it. But he could not see anyone. He was worried and afraid. He ran back to see the leak. Now, the hole had become slightly bigger.

He could not waste any more time. He tried to find something with which he could plug the hole. He could not find anything. He tried to plug the leak with a twig from a tree. But, it did not stop the leak so he put his little finger inside the hole. The finger slid in very easily. Since water was still leaking, he tried his index finger. It was the exact size of the hole. The leak stopped completely! He was very happy that the leak had stopped. He started singing again. But he could not sing for a long time it was getting dark. Hans was hungry and tired. The cold made him shiver.

He thought his mother would send someone to search for him. His mother did not know what her brave son was doing. It became colder and colder. Hans longed for the warm blankets at home. But he knew he could not go home. If he removed his finger from the hole, water would start leaking again. He sat there the whole night. It was cold, and he was hungry and in pain.

Early the next morning, a priest and a mason came that way. They saw Hans groaning in pain. The mason plugged the hole, while the priest took Hans home. Everyone in the village praised the brave boy.

Down the village road, a bullock cart moved on. The cart, full of clay pots, went swinging and swaying along. Humming a tune, the cart man drove alone.

A little clay pot peeped out and cried. 'Wow! What a beautiful place?'

Plak! Down jumped the pot, onto the grass bed. The pot rolled over and hid in the thick green meadows.

By and by, a fly came flying and saw the pot. It was buzz-fuzz, the fly.

'Oh! A little clay hut. I wonder who lives here. Yoo-hoo! anyone inside' She looked inside the pot. It was empty.

The fly flew in and made the pot her home.

By and by a mouse came to the pot.

'Oh! A little clay hut with a window. I wonder who lives here. Yoo-hoo! Anyone inside?' the mouse asked. I'm buzz-fuzz, the fly here. Who are you?' 'Crunch-Munch, the mouse.'

'Well, why don't you move in with me?'

So the mouse scurried in and both of them made the pot their home.

By and by, a frog came hopping by and it saw the pot.

'Oh! A little clay hut with a window. I wonder who lives here. Yoo-hoo!

Anyone inside? 'yes, buzz-fuzz, the fly and Crunch-Munch, the mouse. And who are you?' Hop-Stop, the frog.'

'Well, why don't you move in with us?'

So the fox trotted in and the five made the pot their home.

After a while, a wolf came strolling by and saw the hut.

'Oh! A little clay hut with a window. I wonder who lives here. Yoo-hoo! Anyone inside?'

A LITTLE CLAY HUT

OLD MAN IN THE VILLAGE

An old man lived in the village. He was one of the most unfortunate people in the world. Thee whole village was tired of him; he was always; he was always gloomy, he constantly complained and was always in a bad mood.

Thee longer he lived, the more bile he was becoming and the more poisonous his words. People avoided him, because of his misfortune became contagious. It was even unnatural and insulting to be happy next to him.

He created feeling of unhappiness in others. But one da, when he turned eighty year old, an incredible thing happened. Instantly everyone started the rumour. “An old man is happy today, he doesn’t complain today about anything, smiles, and even his faces is freshened up.” Thee whole village gathered together. Thee old man was asked village: what happened to you?

“Nothing special. Eight years I’ve been chasing happiness, and it was useless. And then I decided to live without happiness and just enjoy life. Theat’s what I’m happy now.”

moral: WHEN WE STOP SEEKING HAPPINESS FROM THE OUTSIDE, WE FIND HAPPINESS. ⁴⁴

Once upon a time in a village there lived a boy named John. He has a beautiful mother. His father died when he was small kid. He was smart and kind boy. He was topper in the class. POWER OF HARD WORK

Finally his dream came true. He became a doctor. He thought himself that I have struggled a lot so my dream had come true. Today my name is there in top ten list of doctors. There are many people in the world who can't achieve their dream. Now I understand that we can achieve anything when we hard work for it.

NATURE AND DEVELOPMENT

AMINA SHADA. A

As we all know that nowadays we are suffering from many climate crisis. Do you know why is this because? Because of the excess development. We need development but we should not push out our mother nature. Every single thing is made up of nature, then why do we are destroying it? Nowadays we are suffering from heavy rain. It is because, the earth cannot drink water. When we concrete the floor the earth can't drink water. In olden days when the June arrives the rain will also arrives. But now the summer season will extend till June, July months. Deforestation is the biggest mistake that we are doing to our nature. Once we stop deforestation, the best result will come. For each and every development we need to cut down the trees. Actually we don't have an accurate seasons now. In day time there will be an extreme hot and in night time there will be heavy rain. The scientist's are saying that they expected this climate changes in 2030. but the expectations have been earlier now. Not only about the deforestation but in pollution also. Each and every house has a motor vehicle. Motor vehicles are a daily essential thing in our life. When the smoke from vehicles and from factories comes out it causes our ozone layer too. And the oil coming from factories are going through the water bodies. So now we understood that not only the climate changes but in ozone layers and water bodies are effecting these problems through different ways by knowing and unknowingly. We need the development and nature too. We need development but it should not cause our MOTHER NATURE.

LIFE

-SHAIKHA ABDULLA.N.M
IX-H

Life is a gift from god. It is a journey with eventful phases. Life is an examination one who does good deeds will get reward from God. Each steps taken in our life is worthwhile.

Life is an opportunity which will turn our life. It is like standing before a river and take water, some stand with empty hands, some take water in spoon, others in their hands and others take water in buckets. Likewise how much we make use of opportunity is proportional to height that we are going to reach. The secret of success is to be ready for opportunity when it comes.

In our life there is eventful phases some of which brings the joy of fulfilling experience and well being, other make us morose and pensive. Both has its own significance in shaping the goal of our objectives. Life is like two sides of coin one side contains of bitterness, hardships, sorrows and failure etc. One who know to manage this two sides will become as successful personality.

Our life should not be like a leaf which lives for some time and shed off, but should be like a like a root from which where branches emerges.

Dream is one of the factor in life. Future belongs those who believe in the beauty of dream but having big dream in life will not make anything working to convert you dream in to real stepping stone of success.

Life is 1 + Society. Isolated life is not possible life of man is tightly bonded with society. We become civilized and we learn everything by mingling with society. Life hinges on three relationships.

Relationship with ourself, with others and with transcendental forces. Life will be complete only when you develop yourself in all three relationship.

If there is any negative things in your life, you need to change it, the process is only positive thinking. The life is made up of positive and negative. Positive thinking make success. In life try to create at least one happy moment for atleast on person. Everyday of your life wake up with a sense of purpose to create a happy moment for someone today and everyday.

We shouldn't forget to enjoy the life. Life is like icecream. It will melt if we taste it or waste it. So it will better to taste it.

IMPORTANCE OF READING

-ABNA.M

Our mind is like a large room with many windows. If we keep the windows closed, the room can become musty and an unused smell. When we open the window we let in fresh air and light. Reading is one of the main window we let in fresh air and new ideas and dreams, and open up our life to whole away of new things. Reading fires the imagination kind less the thirst of knowledge horizons. Children who can enjoy a good book do not want to be constantly entertained and kept occupied they are usually self contained and creative.

The benefits of reading are many. The grey cells of our brain require constant workout and when we denote use for a time it tends to a trophy. Reading make use of certain part of the brain not just in recognizing words but also more importantly understanding ideas and concept contain in book. Ideas and concepts are hazy pictures on what we can do. Unless the mind has been trained in working difficult to convert them into action.

Research on the function of the two hemisphere of the brain showed that, the left side govern the language and verbal skills, linear and literal thinking. Where as the right hemisphere specialise in metaphor's. Working with images and non linear thinking

It has been found that there is direct co-relation between the number of hours if TV watching and the full in grades. The more TV watch the less we work out those grey cells it is like relax in front of the TV and hoping to build great muscle in our food. Reading is a great way to achieve both so we have to develop the habit of reading. It will improve our memory power. Medical science gives us warning that those who are not having the habit of reading their grey cell will destroyed.

So open the windows of our mind and let the sunshine of new experiences come in by reading books.

Artificial Intelligence

In computer science, artificial intelligence [AI], is intelligence demonstrated by machines, in contrast to the natural intelligence displayed by human.

Colloquially the term “ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE” is often used to describe machines [computer] mimic “cognitive” functions that humans associate with the human mind such as learning and problem solving

Artificial intelligence can be classified into three different types of system; analytical, human inspired and humanized artificial intelligence. analytical AI has only characteristics consistent with cognitive intelligence; generating a cognitive representation of the world and using learning based on past experience to inform future decisions. human-inspired AI has elements from cognitive and emotional intelligence; understanding human emotions, in addition to cognitive elements, and considering them in their decisions making. humanized AI shows characteristics of all types of competencies [ie, cognitive, emotional and social intelligence] is able to self-conscious and is self-aware in interactions

ADVANTAGES OF AI:-

AI would have a low error rate compared to humans, if coded properly.

They would have incredible precision, accuracy and speed.

They won't be affected by hostile environments thus, able to complete dangerous tasks, explore in space, and endure problems that would injure or kill us

 Can detect fraud in card based system, and possibly other systems in future

DISADVANTAGES OF AI:-

This can prevent sympathizing with emotions for human contact, such as in being nurses. this can also reduce wisdom understanding.

With smart phones and other technology already, humans can become too independent on AI and loose their mental capacities.

INTERNET

The internet is the global system of interconnected computer network that uses the internet protocol suit to link devices world wide. Packet switched network such as NPL Network by Donald Davies, ARPANET, The merit network CYCLADES and Telnet were developed in the late 1960's and 1970's. The ARPANET project lead to the development of protocol. For inter networking, The internet rapidly expanded in Europe and Australia in the mid 1980's. As the technology advanced and commercial opportunity field reciprocal growth, The volume of internet traffic started experiencing similar characteristic as that of the scaling of semi conduct or exemplified by moor's law. Since 1995 the internet had tremendously impacted culture and commerce including the rise of near instant communication by email, telephony, two way interactive video call etc... The communication and infra structure of internet consists of it's hardware components and a system of software layers that controls various aspects of the architecture .The internet enabled new forms of social interaction, Activities and social association. Internet can be accessed almost everywhere by numerous means including through mobile phone, data cards hand held game etc. Nowadays internet has become an unavoidable fact in our life.

POLLUTION

There are many types of pollutions like, water pollution, air pollution, sound pollution, land pollution etc.... Polluting these is the worst sin that we should not do to the nature or environment. We should not pollute our Society and make our habitat dirty. There are many way to keep our society clean. We should refuse the use of plastic. Polluting air may cause diseases like Asthma etc... To keep our society clean we can avoid plastics and use paper bags, paper cups etc... Land fill, Compost manure are some of natural ways to keep our surroundings clean. We can plant many trees and breathe the fresh air vehicles have polluted gas in it. Its very dangerous for health. Nowadays rivers are polluted and untidy because people wash clothes, throw garbage and bath from these rivers and the rivers get polluted. Reduce, refuse, recycle, reuse are some way to keep nature clean. People now a day are littering in roads and railways and people are diseased because of this. We should plant many trees, stop deforestation, refuse the use of plastic, use Bio-Fertilizers to make Soil Neutrals like, Goat droppings, Poultry dropping, Cow dropping, Fish manure etc... Cutting trees and Constructing Building instead and polluting it are some of ways Nowadays. Do not burn plastic waste and pollute air. We should not throw garbage in the road side. Through these steps we can reduce pollution and save our planet earth.

PYTHAGORAS

WHY IS PYTHAGORAS CONSIDERED ONE OF THE GREATEST SCIENTIST OF ALL TIME?

Pythagoras was an ancient Greek mathematician and philosopher who lived more than 500 years before christ.

He spent most of his life in the greek colonies in sicily and southern Italy. He was also a philosopher, and founder of the religious movement called pythagoreanism. Pythagoras had a group of disciples who followed him around, and taught other people what he had taught them. He crucial contributions to modern philosophy, as well as mathematics, science, and religious mysticism. It is also believed that he had a significant influence on medicine, music, astronomy, and divination.

GALILEO GALILEI

WHAT MAKE GALILEO GALILEI A REMARKABLE SCIENTIST ?

Galileo Galilei was a groundbreaking Italian astronomer, physicist, mathematician, philosopher and inventor. He opened the eyes of the world to a new way of thinking about how the solar system works. For many years, scientists had believed that the solar system revolved around the earth, and that the earth was the centre of the universe. Galileo was the first scientist to prove that this wasn't correct. He also invented an improved telescope so that he could gaze far into space. He was the first to see Jupiter's moon, and the first to realise that our moon was covered with craters. Besides inventing the improved telescope, he also invented the compass and a thermometer. Galileo has played a major role in the scientific revolution of the 17th century.

FIREFLIES

Fireflies are winged beetles with light-producing organs called photic organs located in the lower part of their abdomen. Bioluminescence in fireflies serves several purpose-to attract mates, to lure prey and in larvae, the light is usually intermittent, and flashes in patterns that are unique to each species. Some fireflies are capable of synchronising their light emission in a phenomenon known as simultaneous bioluminescence.

This phenomenon has been observed only in a few places such as the Great Smoky Mountains National Park in Tennessee, the U.S., and in the mangrove forests of Southeast Asia.

For 150 Million years from Jurassic period until end of the Cretaceous period, 65 million years ago, dinosaurs lived on earth. Their remains have been discovered in every continents of Antarctica. They formed varied group of land living reptiles. People now study prehistoric life, called palaeontologists, divided them into two main groups. There were meat eating and plant eating dinosaur, were huge; others were only the rite of chickens.

Dinosaurs laid had shelled eggs as Rome reptiles do today. Many Dinosaur laid a clutch of eggs in a hollowed. out nert in the ground reveal forillized nert have been found close together, which ruggerts that some dinosaurs nested in colonies. The chicks developed rapidly and may have left the nest room after hatching many were correct for by the parent dinosaurs until they were able to look after themselves.

Dinosaur skin

Occasionally, the skin, or slain impression, of dinosaurs is preserved from there forrile we can tell that the skin of many dinosaurs was not smooth, but rough. This would have given some protection against the claws and teeth of predators. This is the skin of polacanthees.

KERALA FLOOD 2019

On 8 August 2019, due to heavy rain fall in the monsoon season, Severe flood affected the southern Indian state of Kerala. As a security measure in the prevailing situation of heavy rains, the Government of Kerala had issued Red alert in the 9 districts in Northern and Central Kerala, and Yellow alert in 3 districts of Southern Kerala. Thousands of people have been evacuated to safer places and relief camps. A total amount of 101 people have died due to rain-related incidents since 14 August 2019, These camps now host more than 2 lakh people from various parts of the state. Another deluge had hit the state in August 2018, in which over 470 people died and properties worth US$5.8 billion (Rs.40000crore) were damaged.

CAUSES

Incessant rain accompanied with the rise of water level in rivers and other water bodies have resulted in flooding in many parts of Kerala. Low pressure is also a reason.

IMPACT

As of 14 august 2019,121 people have been killed due to the flood across the state of Kerala. Over 2 lakh people have been directly affected by the flood ,and have been shifted to 1318 relief camps in different parts of Kerala. airport authorities suspended operations of the flood affected Cochin international airport till 15:00(I.S.T) on 11august 2019.the data from the Kerala state disaster management states that, as many as 1,789 houses had been damaged fully in between 8 and 19 august, while the number partially damaged houses is 14,542.

There have been 80 landslides in the span of two days, as said by the chief minister. Many people who are feared to be buried alive under them are being rescued. It is still a critical situation as the calamities interfere with the rescue operation. Districts that have been severely affected include Wayanad, Malappuram, Kozhikode, Kannur, Palakkad, Thrissur and Ernakulam districts.

RESCUE

Kerala State Disaster Management Authority, Kerala police along with the Indian air force, civilians, volunteers, fishermen from coastal Kerala are actively taking part in the rescue operations in flood-affected regions. However, inclement weather with heavy rains and landslides are hampering the rescue operations in the hilly regions of Wayanad, Malappuram and Kozhikode districts. 83 National disaster rescue force(NDRF) teams were deployed in addition to the 173 teams of Army, Navy, Air Force, and Coast Guard to take part in the relief operations. Animal rescue was carried out by local NGOs and activists on ground mainly in places like Wayanad and Nilambur. Notable work was done by Sally Varma of Human international society in Nilambur where around 500 kg of dog food and more than 5000 kg of cattle feed and 2500 kg of goat feed was distributed to the starving animals.

RELIEF AND MONETARY AID

Immediate financial aid of up to Rs. 10,000 each for all calamity-hit families which had suffered losses in the torrential rains. A sum of Rs. 4 lakh would be given to those whose houses had been fully damaged or had become uninhabitable and Rs. 10 lakh to those who had lost their houses as well as land in the rain fury and landslides, Chief Minister's cabinet meeting.

CRUELTY TO ANIMALS

Reffer from 65school essays

THE PRIMARY GOAL OF ANY CIRCUS IS TO ENTERTAIN AND EXCITE PEOPLE OF ALL AGES. PERFORMERS IN A CIRCUS DISPLAY FEATS OF PHYSICAL SKILL, COURAGE AND TALENT. BUT NOW-A-DAYS MOST CIRCUSES HAVE INCLUDED ANIMAL ALSO AS PERFORMERS. THIS IS AN EXAMPLE OF JUST ONE OF THE INNUMERABLE CRUELITIES TOWARDS ANIMAL BY MAN.

THEY KEEP MOST OF THESE ANIMALS IN CAGES AND BRING THEM OUT AT THE TIME OF PERFORMANCE IN THE RING. THE POOR ANIMALS ARE DEPRIVED HABITAT MAN HAS BECOME SO SELF CENTRED AND SELFISH. HE DOES NOT MIND IN FLICKING ANY KIND OF UNSPEAKABLE CRUELTY ON ANIMALS AS LONG AS HIS ON PURPOSE IS DULY SERVED.

CAPTIVATING WILD ANIMALS AND USING THEM AS A MEANS OF ENTERTAINMENT IS A SIN AGAINST THE CREATOR WHO HAD CREATED THESE ANIMALS TO LIVE A FREE LIFE IN THE WILD .AND I DON' THINK THERE IS ANY ENTERTAINMENT IN WATCHING AND ELEPHANT PLAY CRICKET OR A LOIN JUMP THROUGH A RING OF FIRE. THE POOR ANIMALS DON'T FEEL ANY PLEASURE OR SATISFACTION WHILE PERFORMING THESE ACTS . IT IS THE RING MASTER'S WHIP THAT MAKES THEM PERFORM OUT OF FEAR . THE ANIMALS ARE STARVED AND WHIPPED MERCILESSLY DURING THE PERIOD OF TRAINING AND IT IS THIS FEAR OF THE WHIP WHICH MAKES THEM DANCE TO THE TUNE OF THE RING MASTER'S SIGNAL. THIS CRUEL PRACTICE NEEDS TO BE STOPPED AND NO CIRCUS SHOULD BE ALLOWED TO HOLD IT'S SHOWS IF IT INCLUDES AS PERFORMER.

POEM

The story Of My Life

we came from a mile
To make a Smile,
Shower over the land
In form of Band.

We as The Messenger of God,
Come To bless you from abode
We emerge from the heart of the sea,
And fall while you enjoy your tea,

We are like tears
like a blue pearl in your ears running down form running cloud, chatter chatter i fall alone

We know you were waiting for the rainbow my brother anmting wait! For we are among a mile
To make you smile.

Bloom

I see your eyes bloom,
Ooh such beauty, i adore you
The way your bright coloured petal
Captured my eye,
what else could i term you
Other than embodiment of beauty.
I wonder how could this beauty have no greed.
And here she tells me,
That she's scarcely alive.
She tells me how her beauty
could not show her lamentation.
She's cursed by non but herself for the Beauty she has got.
She tells me beauty was which the evil eye attacked.
She never invites anyone to her valley of desolation.
As the day bleeds into night falls, she grows.
She has got no guarantee of life.
You see her today and tomorrow she's gone,
She's been plucked because of her beauty.
She's kept as an an adornment
And once her beauty is decayed,
She's thrown away.
She describes humans as an inscrutable creatures,
She tells me that beauty isn't everything,
But the inner beauty which world would likely to see.

DREAM

Uprooting her soul from her body, she was in force no more.
the restless mind which desired for peace one day,
wasn't a satisfaction.
the blood shot eye which wished for a clear vision always ended up blurry.
when the world was in the deep slumber at the dusk, she was awake till the dawn, craving for sleep and a sweet dream, she could never get one as she grew.
The protein she requires was missed
in her daily routine.
And here atlas she is,
deep in sorrow, she was a numb
her mind was finally in rest,
she has got the peace that she ever wanted,
from dusk till the dawn she was asleep.
Forever she was in motion,
and required no nutrient, so was she one?
Her eyes was blurred no more, but she was disappeared in the vision of the world she left everything, but only carried her deeds thus, what could be ever useful in the grave she was left.

NATURE

Oh! How beautiful is nature!
With flowers and birds
And with twinkling stars
They shine and shine

Nature's beauty cannot be explained,
It is so beautiful
And is so amazing
And is filled with joy.

How amazing is God's creation!
With chirping birds
And colourful flowers and butterflies
They spread happiness.

With fruits and berries
And different creatures
HOW BEAUTIFUL IS NATURE!
HOW BEAUTIFUL IS NATURE! Thank you O God
For your blessings
Thank you for everything
O My Lord.

I WILL RISE

I will rise

After every fall

I will rise

and stand even more fall

I will raise above them all

Like the sun which never dies

though it set every night

but every day it does raise

Like the ocean

whose tides

many times they are down

but invariably they rise

like a tree

from seed they rise

and heights great

they rise and rise

i will rise

after every fall

TOYS

Some lifeless things?

No. They are the life
of our childhood

Some dull things?

No dear, They are the colour
of our childhood

Some noisy things?

Never, They are the sound of happiness
of our childhood

Inside the lifeless, Dull,
Noisy thing

lies a life, colour and happiness

we wish we could enjoy again

Toys are not just some mute things

It is the story teller
of an awesome childhood

As we grow up

what is the other thing left other than the toys

to remain us about an awesome life we lived?

RAIN

Here comes the rain with, happiness of kid's, 77

And their full off rain!

Plants and trees will blow,

With a heavy smile!

Oh rain, oh rain how beautiful are you!

Stay here with mine!

When you go on,

WISH

-FAIHA.K

MY MIND IS BLANK
WERE MY PENT DON'T WORK
WORDS DON'T COME UP,
CAUSE THERE ARE NO WORDS
WISH I COULD BE THE OLD ME
WERE MY LIFE WAS A PARADISE
NOT A GRAVEYARD
WISHED ME THE OLD ME COULD
MEET ME AND SAY;
"HEY THERE, I'M YOUR PAST INSTANTS" WISHED THE FUTURE ME COULDN'T
MEET ME AND SAY;
"HEY THERE, I'M YOUR COMING MISERY"
MY TEARS TURNED BLACK
CAUSE ITS MY FAVOURITE SCAR WISHED ME PRESENT ME COULD
MEET ME AND SAY;
"HEY THERE , THE STORM WILL PASS BY
AND YOU'LL HAVE A GOOD BYE
THE LIGHTS WHICH WERE SHINING
ARE NOW FUSED TO LIGHTNING
THE THUNDER SOUND IS QUITE
COMPARED TO MY SILENT SCREAM
WISHED ME STORM WOULD NIL
AND GO EASILY;
WERE I GET HURT BARELY
WISH I COULD BUILD A TIME MACHINE
AND FAST FORWARD MY WORST
AND FREEZE DOWN MY BEST
THE SWORD WHICH I ALWAYS TRUSTED,
NOW KILLED ME WITH IT'S SHARP WAVES
AND NOW MY GRAVEYARD IS FULL OF BACK STAB
AND MISUNDERSTANDING,
IT HURTS ME WITH ITS AWFUL THOUGHTS
WERE I CAN'T EVEN MURMUR
BUT JUST BE A DREAMER.

LIGHTS OF DARKNESS

AS THE DAY LIGHT FADES,
THE SILENCE OF THE HEART DIMINISHES
AND AS THE DARKNESS ARRIVE,
THE AIR I BREATHE IS THE ONE FILLED WITH MELANCHOLY
AS WHEN THE EIGENGLASS SURROUNDS, I SEEK FOR THE MOONLIGHT, THE RESOURCEFUL INDEED,
MILES AWAY BUT YET A CRYSTALLINE
VISION.

THE SHARP BRIGHT LIGHT
SHINING IN THE DARKEST OF THE SKY,
WHERE THE GLIMPSE OF LIGHT TOUCHING THE SOUL WOULD GIVE OPTIMISM.

BUT IF IT WAS ONLY THE LIGHT THAT COULD DRIVE OUT THE DARKNESS, WHY IS THE NIGHT SKY LEFT DARK THOUGH IN PRESENCE OF THE MOONLIGHT?
