The Impact of Social Media
on Democracy

Through The Mysteries Of Social Media

Social Media gains more importance in this new generation. The impact of social media on democracy is also prevalent nowadays.

"Don't use social media to impress people; use it to impact people."

The words of the famous writer Dave Willis are also gaining importance. We can use social media to spread the importance of democracy. Everything in this world contain positives and negatives, social media also has positives and negatives.

As our country is in a democratic system, we can be proud proud of it. There are many things that stands in the positive side of social media on democracy.

Share Quotes

The youngsters in this generation depends on social media for everything. So we can use social media to spread the ideas of democracy. Democracy is the only thing that is not present in the world nowadays. We all know about the wars happening all around the world. We can use social media to share the quotes that presents the importance of democracy. For this, we can use the social media platforms like facebook, instagram etc.

Share The Ideas Against Wars

The most important war ~~is~~ happening in the world is Russia -

Ukraine war. There is no democracy in land where war exists. So we can share images showing the negative effects of democracy through social media. We should aim for a land where everyone has the right to do anything. Most of countries give importance to autocratic rule in which the poor people are ruled by the people who have strength and money. It should be come to an end. Autocracy is no more in the world.

Social media is a platform in which everyone has the right to do anything. So we can share anything.

Share Ideas Against Caste System

India is a country in which doesn't support any specific religion. So democracy exists here. In countries which follow autocratic rule, caste system is considered as an important thing. People who belongs to higher levels, rule the poor people. So caste system should be eradicated. There is only one caste; that is human being. People tend to tease the people who belongs to lower caste. This leads to the division of people. The reason for the famous French Revolution is caste system prevailed there. So spread the ideas of against caste system through social media platforms like Instagram, Twitter, Facebook etc.

Enhance Reading Online ~~Through~~ Books

Today we like to read books on digital platforms. Nobody is interested in reading books which contain stories. So find books which reflect the importance of democracy. Every books now are available in online. So we should try to find them and share it as much as possible. There are several books that reflects the importance of democracy.

There are many negative effects. let's go through them.

Negative Quotes

As everybody share positive quotes regarding democracy, a few people share negative quotes regarding democracy. Supporting was, supporting caste system, supporting use of drugs, mobile addiction etc.

are few of them.

Supporting Wars

As many of the countries give importance to autocratic rule and many are fighting for nation, they give importance to wars. They share quotes regarding wars. They try to bring a fight between different religions. As they support these wars, many soldiers in both sides lose their lives. This leads the people in that country to sorrow. It leads to the destruction of peace and democracy. Countries like Pakistan, Russia are attacking other countries with its peoples faith. If war doesn't come to an end, the world will move towards its end. They tend to share quotes ~~against~~ regarding war and people with uncontrollable faith are attached by it.

Supporting Caste System

Many nations spread their religious importance through social media. People belong to higher castes are teasing people who belongs to lower caste. It through their posts. This leads to the destruction of democracy.

Spreading faults

Many sites provide information which are really untrue. It leads people to mislead their ideas. They may be about caste, religion, education, government etc. It leads others to think that they are cheated. The move and oppose others.

Fault informations may lead to these problems.

False Information Regarding Government

Many sites in social media share false information about the ruling government of that region.
In this occasion, the opposition parties of that region will support these false information. It leads to the destruction of democracy.

There are more positive effects. Let's look through them.

Promote Individual Rights

As social media has become a daily use thing to use, use it to share the rights of individuals.

Many people are not aware of the rights that are given to children and individuals. As crimes are increased, we should share the right at least now.

Promote Individual Duties

A clean nation always contains democracy. As there are many rights, there are duties too. It is our duty to keep our place clean. It is also a part of democracy. A democratic country always ensures freedom and peace. So as a citizen of a country, we should share the duties to be performed through social media.

The overtime use of social media is also not at all so good. It leads us to mental and physical problems. A time limit must be there for the use of social media. And the we use it should be taken to do these things.

Increased Crimes

Crimes are increasing day by day. Drug addiction is the major reason for this. People use drugs and they tend to do things that are crimes. So we should share posts against drugs. These crimes will be a burden for democracy. Many people support and share the use of drugs. It not only affect the democratic system, it also affects our economic, social and family life. So share the effects of drugs and make people aware of ~~the~~ its side effects.

Help lines

Crimes are increased day by day against woman and children. This leads to the destruction of democracy. If any one face such problems, there are many help lines to help them in such situations and to overcome that situation. In our nation, there are separate help lines. So sharing the functions and duties of such organizations through social media is a best thing that we can do. It is a big thing we can do as a citizen of a nation. We should share as much as possible in today's generation.

Social media has a very good impact in democracy if we use it very effectively. As crimes and drugs are increased, it paves way to wars. So let's aim for a new society. Social media is a platform in which we can share everything. A democratic world is always our dream. Let our all dreams come true. All evils and customs are strictly questioned. Reading online books, posting pictures regarding democracy and freedom, performing duties and rights are parts of this. Let
