

ART OF HASHTAGGING!

Do you know me? I exist here

With your world getting so virtual.
with me unavoidable, for you, so habitual.

I have no death until the man die
For I 'a' world', lot so high
I have roved round the world with many tales

Now, let me tell her tale, a bitter
Me the one who knows it better
She a girl, so cute the wealth of future.
Ruined by ones among you, before she mature

With her dreams to fly high.
withered by you, to let her die.
Made her prey, for their libido, so worst.
A way to unleash their bottled up lust.

Nobody heard her painful scream.
So worst that you can't dream.
Now she lies, lone with the bed hold.
Without a mind to mind the world!

I am with you, came it so sudden.
With so many, for the bed ridden.
Around the world from nook and corner.
Thousands took chances to honour

As the campaign went so high.
Shares, likes, comments - came without a sigh.
'I am with you' - greater words to console.
From where did it come, a blackhole?

Consolations - from leaders, from high minds.
Even her attackers joined the campaigns.
Yes! Come and go just have a tag.
It's free of cost, there is nothing to lag!
