The Warmth of Your Existence

-Godviya (10C)

The winds that carry a seed to germinate
Will germinate to a beautiful flower
A work of art exists in the nature
But one day the time will come When the wind will carry my ashes
It shall rest on the ground
And nurture the mother earth
They'll carry my love
But I will stay in the shores and in the soil
Waiting to be loved again

Story of My Mom

-Aswathy (10C)

Many people have a specific person who inspires them, but many people still wondering who that is, for me it's my mother. My mother believes in me, she supports everything I do, and is always positive about It and cares about my decisions. My mom is always there believing in me that I will succeed. Moving up a grade was always a bit scary but my mother always had my back, and told me to just do my best, and to have fun. With my mother's support I enjoy high school a lot more than I thought I would. My mother believing in me helped motivated me, and show that I can do everything that I put my mind to. But my mother believing in me isn't the only way that she Inspired me, but that my mom also cared about me. My mother never let a day go by without asking me how my day was or telling me how much She loved me.

she always wanted to make sure I am having fun, and enjoying life, with no distractions whenever things get tough, I can always come to my mom and get her opinion. Kids aren't very close with their mom but I know I can share anything with my mom and that she will support me always not only is my mom very caring, and kind but she is also very helpful A person who believes in me, cares about me, and helps me. Like other mothers, she makes sure that I am enjoying life, and that every day I feel good. Inspired, to do Something great. My mother truly believes in me, cares about me, and is always willing to help me with everything. Hopefully you all have a mum that Inspired you like my mom Inspired me.

The Quill's Farewell

In the hallowed halls of Language Lantern, the quill rests, its nib worn from countless tales. It has etched dreams and heartaches, whispered secrets and laughter. Now, it bows—a silent maestro taking its final bow.
But fear not, for its ink lives on, seeping into the very fabric of our memories.

We also express our sincere thanks to our master trainee Dinesh Sir MT
