In the END is my BEGINNING

"It all starts with a new dawn"

My faith in God, is never triggered He shows me sights without being bewildered One with cosmic energy, bright illuminating; so delight

Path where success lies Confidence & strength abides Motto: to stay positive and let out the negatives

Learn, nothing is impossible if you can make it possible Trust I upheld with dignity combined valour & prosperity

If you have a dream, make true another chance never comes to prove a new day arrives to start something special from the heart

If you fall, never give up it's all part of getting up and finish the race Without tying the lace

Many stand as a barrier but we are to stand as a warrior Withstand all depressions Use funny little expressions

'LIFE' is to enjoy alot rather than to abort hurdles are like fuddles to jump across and reach your goals

Success is one percent inspiration Rest percent of perspiration Sheer determination & dedication leads to your final destination

Performing something is easy but to give your best is to do whole heartedly Do your best with power and leave the rest to God

When there comes tragedies slice it like sweet bowl of cherries

When there comes situations: so dejected face the cold wind boldly

True faith results in winning victory always stands in the beginning

Now I see the end right in the beginning of my voyage cuz I have true faith & hope the two faces that join

Never to 'JAIL' and 'GAIL' the two words to remove off from the dead soul arise and awake to picturesque the destiny

Prepare, plan, and work to win right in the beginning We never 'BEND'
 Even though it's an 'END'
