Democracy The civic way of Democracy

"The best way to predict your future is to create it"

- Albert Einstein

These words remind us that the future of anything that fosters the growth of a nation lies in the hands of young people. Democracy plays a crucial role in the art of nation development. It leads to the fall of injustice by uplifting moral values among citizens. As future of democracy is determined by the right decisions and strategies taken now, there we rush towards polishing our rights and duties.

"Youth of today are the leaders of tomorrow"

- Nelson Mandela

The democracy we have contains every proper solutions for every dullness happening to our rights and duties. However, the right implementation of those values is must. Hence developing value-oriented citizens matters. Youth of today — the future guard.

of our democracy, is going through the technology era. It can be both beneficial and detrimental. Responsible citizens are cultivated by the right use of technological resources. Spreading ~~fact~~ fake news related to democracy, doing cyber attacks like denial of services, threatening and phishing are again against the positive growth of democracy. As per National Cybercrime Reporting Portal of 2024 Reports of 2024, there is an unprecedented surge of such negative practices; about 22.68 lakh cybercrimes were reported. This can affect the growth of democracy in future.

At the same time, connecting, creating and collaborating for the development of youth with the help of technologies can make a huge impact by rising responsible mindset among youths.

As Martin Luther King Jr. once reminded us that, 'injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere', the future of democracy needs the right judgement — where truths are recognised and mischief practices are punished. By strengthening the judgement, we strengthen the minds of citizens. The belief of youth in democracy is a cornerstone of the future of democracy. The youth had worked for the justice everytime. The struggle against CAA bill in Delhi and clenched fists for justice for Nirbhaya case are ~~exp~~ examples. This shows that awareness of rights could bring drastic changes among citizens, that can fuel up the wellness of democracy. Conducting awareness classes among children helps a lot. It results in the growth of democracy.

Our nation, India, has the largest constitution. Also our India has diversities. From the colour of human race to cultural practices are different from place to place. The diversity in our country — in caste, colour, religion, etc often gets discriminated. This challenges the right to believe and right to spread their culture they stand among citizens. As Mahatma Gandhi ^{once} said 'Be the change you wish to see in the world', if every individuals choose to respect each caste, culture and colour— our nation's future including our implementation of diversity changes. 'Unity in diversity' shouldn't stay as merely as a word; but in action it Should be reflected. While respecting each diversities we unknowingly implements the values of democracy is in right way.

Democracy ensures rights and we should safeguard it. The future of democracy— in the means of service connecting the right person with their fundamental rights needs to fostered for a good future. But the illiterate communities and some tribal groups are often abolished from their rights. As a part of our nation still in darkness, lending helping hands to those people and showing them the strength they holds as per the constitution— the literate community is doing their civic responsibility.

Gender equality ensures the smooth flow of democratic values. Hence women-empowerment is vital. Upliftment of democracy is through the upliftment of society. Therefore ignorance about women rights that in our constitution ensures is like endigging digging negatively working against ourselves. 'Empower a woman — empower a community' is a famous dialogue of Kofi Annan. It says that It shows how deeply the denial of women's rights can affect democracy. The right to earn and learn among women are increasing. It can positively influence the graph of democracy. There are many future ways to contribute to the growth of democracy by women empowerment. One of them is '3Ls' of empowerment. Learning, 'Learning', 'Labour' and 'leadership' could bring drastic changes to women empowerment — the skeleton of community empowerment that uplifts the future of democracy.

Conclusion, Conclusion, Strengthening the present values is the reflection of the future of democracy. Youths are the unstoppable force that ensures the safety of democracy. Raising awareness about civil rights and responsibilities through the fastly evolving technologies boosts the rigid movement of strengthening unity over discrimination that exists in society. Providing rights to the illiterate community — a challenging one should be taken as a civil responsibility by the literate and enthusiastic citizens. Equality based on gender and protection of women's right lightens up the community; this could unlock the hope for a better future of democracy.

In conclusion, 'In a gentle way ^{you} can shake the world' as our Father of Our Nation said. Youth-centered development strategies of today are like the sowing seeds of better future of democracy and the nation. Choice about civic sense isn't a choice; it is a ~~preposition~~ ~~necessity~~ ~~prece~~ necessity for future!
