A DESIRE OF EMANCIPATION

Refugees, the one with myriads of hope

Who swoons to break protruding solitude

Who yearns to cherish camaraderie

Who suffice ambiguity of berseks

Refugees, whose thirst for emancipation

Make their desires come true

When exposed to realities

Face them with great courage

Refugees, the one with unrequited dreams

Fight for themselves

Making them prudent peaks

Fighting for their own cubicle

Bizarreness of owners of land

Sets ^{refugees} them ablaze

Drooling in epiphany of life

Gazing at their dream homes.

They dream to be a warrior

Giggling like infants

But maturity as that of chaperones

Ruling their dream fort

Refugees teleport from place to place

Not entailing in ordinary cycles of life

Making them selfless

Waxing till eternity

Refugees wanna overcome unexpected perishes

Sizzling like an adonis

Succeeding in their forte

Making way to fraternity

Refugees sense surreal life

Looming at a gibbous living

Yearning for compassion

With mind the greatest tool

Refugees want a serene living

Life away from espers

Leading an astray life

Refugees are alluring philanthropists

Explosive at times

Swooshing over new lives

Letting go of the past

Refugees yearn for a concation

A concation of care, passion, confidence

Whose expectations create a haze

Ceasing immortal shackles

Erratic humans

create obscurity in their ethereal world

Making way to destroy peace

Leading ^{way} to wars

Refugees indulge in platonic life

Doomed in perfidyness of morose

Sinking in limpness

Escaping from death ringers

Refugees let go of procrastination

Caressing hard work

Exposing true colours of exploiters

Sending chill through spines

Annul life of refugees

Make them a horegallu

Giving way to independence

Acquiring identity and respect
