

The Core of life

[The Biography of Homo Sapiens]

Sweat was dripping from his face. Legs started shivering tremendously. Heartbeats became faster. His mouth became so dry as the heartbeats raised. Suddenly darkness entered his eyes. The view around him got blurred. It took him back to his memories. He oozed into ~~his roots~~ the roots of his life.

He was born on a warm day. The first sound he heard was his mother's cry of happiness. Mother's face with a fulfilled smile was the first thing he saw, and the first touch he felt was ~~his mother's~~ her compassionate kiss on his forehead. It was the first time he felt that the world is a magic and love is the key to it. But, after a few minutes from his birth the hands which held his little fingers became cold and stiff.
