IMPORTANCE OF ENGLISH EDUCATION

In today's global world importance of English education cannot be denied or ignored since English is the most common language spoken everywhere. With the help of developing technology, English has been playing a major role in many sectors including medicine, engineering, education, which in my opinion is the most important area where English is needed. English should be the medium of instruction at institutions in India for the following reasons: finding a high quality job by communicating with the international world; knowing the world etc...

In business life the most important common language is obviously English. The student who is graduated from a university which takes English as a major language will find a better job than other students who don't know English adequately.

SIR A.P.J ABDUL KALAM

“ My message especially to young people is to have courage to think differently,courage to discover ,the impossible and to conquer the problem and succeed These are great qualities that they must work towards. This is my message to the young people”

The sudden demise of Dr A.P.J Abdul Kalam, former president,author, inspirational speaker, scientist,researcher,visionary above all a fine human being, is a great loss to the country and has saddened millions. Born in humble circumstances in a Muslim family in rural Tamilnadu, a young boy who sold news paper to help his family make ends meet, Dr. Kalam grow one amongst the most respected people of the country.

“what ever may be the depth of water in a river, lake or pit; whatever may be the condition of water weather it is cold, warm or stormy,the lotus will always come upward and bloom”. These lines of saint poet Thiruvalluvar hold well in case of Dr. Kalam. He has reached such destination with all difficulties and struggles in life which people can never dream of. This is the reason why he always invoke in his speeches to the people to see dreams

SONG OF THE DREAM

Once in the dream of a night I stood lone in the light of a magical wood, soul-deep in visions that poppy-like the sprang; and spirits of truth were the birds that sang, and spirits of peace were the streams that flowed in that magical wood in the land of sleep.

Lone in the light of that of that magical grove, I felt the stars of the spirits of love gather of gleam round my delicate youth, and I heard the song of the spirits of truth,
To quench my longing I bent me low

By the streams of the spirits of peace that flowed In that magical wood in the land of sleep

THE PURPOSE OF EDUCATION

We go to schools to get educated we learn many things. They will help us to build up a good future. But what is the real purpose of education ? In fact, education is more than knowledge. Gaining knowledge is only one of the aims of education there are many more.

Character formation is another important purpose of education. If you have good character, you are well educated if is very necessary to build up a good future.

Education also will make one courageous. If one is not powerful, he can't do much in life.

Education also should make us hard working it is only through hard work they achieves great thing such life.

We have to do some thing for the society. Education will make you under you under stand your social responsibilities. It will also help you to learn from your mistakes.

Proper education doesn't make anyone proud. Some people become proud, as they become educated. It is a wrong sign.

A really educated person will be always him be he will always try to help others.

Education is for life you may have all the knowledge in the world.

But if you don't know how to live every thing will follow if.

Song of the Rain

I am clotted silver thread dropped from heaven by the Gods.
Nature then takes me,
to adorn Her fields and valleys.

I am beautiful pearls, plucked from the Crown of Ishtar by the daughter of Dawn
To embellish the gardens.

When I cry, the hills laugh;
When I humble myself, the flower rejoice;
When I bow, all things are elated.

The field and the cloud are lovers
And between them I am a messengers of mercy. I quench the thirst of one;
I cure the ailment of the others.

The voice of thunder declares my arrival;
The rainbow announces my departure.
I am like earthly life, which begins at
The feel of the mad elements and ends
under the upraised wings of death.

Up in the tree top
Building its nest
with no time to stop
Hatching its egg.
So smooth and so round
Then feeding its babies

Look at the birds

When it gets cold
The birds will return
Let's watch how the birds live

THE BIRD WITH TWO HEADS

Once upon a time, there lived a strange bird near a lake. This bird had two heads, two necks, two beaks and two mouths; but only one common stomach.

One day, this odd, yet beautiful bird was flying near the surface of the water, and as it did, the water rippled and flowed. Nature's splendour made him dance with joy. How elated he felt!

Suddenly, the bird's roving eyes spotted a golden-red fruit, growing on the river bank.

'I know because I spotted it first, so logically, it must be for me!' said the first head. He ate the fruit with immense pleasure. 'I've tasted many fruits till now, but this is the most delicious!' he exclaimed. 'It tasted like nectar!'

Hearing this, the second head was most eager to try it too. 'O dear, let me also have a taste of which you are praising so much!' said the second head.

'I've tasted it so what does it matter?' said the first head. 'And I have told you before, it tastes divine, exactly like nectar!'

'But I have never tasted nectar!' said the second head.

'As we have only one stomach, it really does not matter which head tries it out. The fruit will go into the same stomach,' laughed the first head.

'Let me just have a tiny piece!' begged the second head.

'since it make no difference whether I eat it, you need not ask for a taste again!' shouted the first head. 'I found this fruit first, I get the right it eat it all up!!!!.....'

A PRAYER IN SPRING

1. Oh; give us pleasure in the flowers to-day; And give us not to think so far away as the uncertain harvest; keep us here All simply in the springing of the year.
2. oh give us pleasure in the orchard white like nothing else by day like ghosts by night; And make us happy in the happy bees,the swarm dilating round the perfect trees.
3. And make us happy in the darting bird that suddenly above the bees is heard,the meteor that thrusts in with needle bill,and off a blossom in mid air stands still.
4. For this is love and nothing else is love, the which it is reserved for god above to sanctify to what far ends he will, but which it only needs that we fulfil.

FAILURE IS THE STEPPING STONE TO SUCCESS

All of us experience failure in life in one way or other. One should not lose heart when failure comes. He should find out the real cause for his failure and be ready to fight again and win if he is confident and optimistic, he can make his failure inspire him to fight vigorously. If he has strong will power, his failure may turn into success. Failure produces in man zeal and zest, without failure man becomes easy going and self satisfied. He gives up effort and becomes stagnant. Greatness is achieved only by meeting failure. Robert Bruce failed to free his country in spite of the several efforts he has made, but he succeeded in the end. Einstein was an utter failure in his early life, but became the greatest scientific of the world. It is failure alone that brings out the greatness in man.

BAD TEMPER

Once upon a time there was a little boy who was talented, creative, handsome, and extremely bright. But he had a very bad temper when he got angry, he usually said or did some very hurtful things. His parents were fed up due to his nature. Finally, the father has an idea.

He gave him a bag of nails and a big hammer.

He said to him, “Whenever you lose your temper, take one nail and drive it to those weathered oak board in that old fence”

After few weeks, the boy told his father that all nails were driven into oak board. Father told son to remove the nails and take one more look at the fence. His father said “I want to notice the holes that are felt. Saying or doing hurtful things in anger produces same kind of result. There will always be a scar. It won't matter how many times you say you're sorry, or how many years pass, the scar will be there. The verbal wound is bad as a physical one. If you forgive others mistakes, that will make you and others happy.

If we are wise, we will spend our time building bridges rather than barriers in our relationship.
