

“The Crying Earth

*Darkened clouds winds and rain
Left alone with all this pain
It's winter here without you
Landslides always drag me down
Trapped for days, will be found
I pray for skies of blue
Flooded plains within my head
Tornadoes draw near leave me for dead
I feel alone without you
Drought from tears I know not for
I've cried for days, I cry no more
Live made mistakes it's true.
Hurricane waves pound on my shore
I'm drowning on my bedroom floor
Will be never be together?
This natural bridge from heart to heart
Collapse in shreds, fallen a part
These seasons last forever*
