OF SPACE A BRIEF HISTORY EXPLORATION.....

HUMANS HAVE ALWAYS LOOKED UP INTO THE NIGHT SKY AND DREAMED ABOUT SPACE. IN THE LATTER HALF OF THE 20th CENTURY, ROCKETS WERE DEVELOPED THAT WERE POWERFUL ENOUGH TO OVERCOME THE FORCE OF GRAVITY TO REACH ORBITAL VELOCITIES, PAVING THE WAY FOR SPACE EXPLORATION TO BECOME A REALITY.

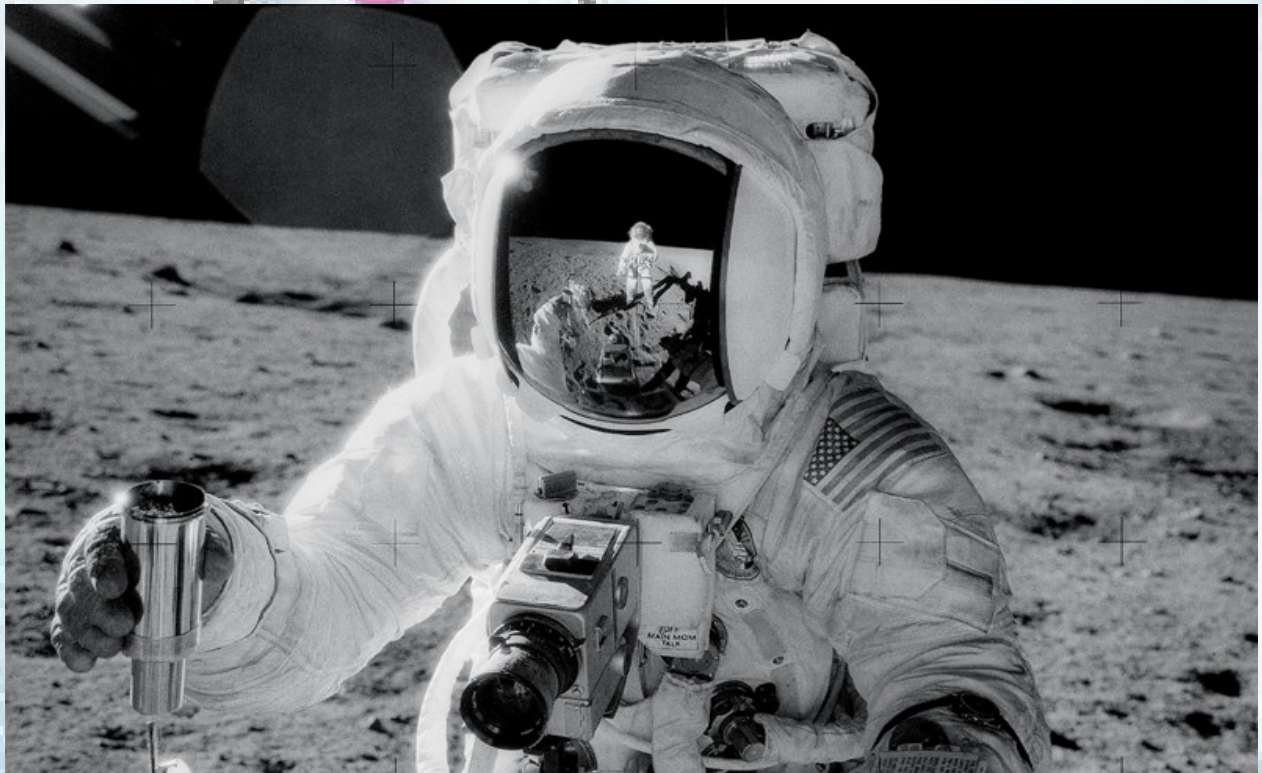

IN THE 1930s AND 1940s, NAZI GERMANY SAW THE POSSIBILITIES OF USING LONG-DISTANCE ROCKETS AS WEAPONS. LATE IN WORLD WAR 2, LONDON WAS ATTACKED BY 200-MILE-RANGE V-2 MISSILES, WHICH ARCHED 60 MILES HIGH OVER

THE ENGLISH CHANNEL AT MORE THAN 3,500 MILES PER HOUR. AFTER WORLD WAR 2, THE UNITED STATES AND THE SOVIET UNION CREATED THEIR OWN MISSILE PROGRAMS.

ON OCT. 4, 1957, THE SOVIETS LAUNCHED THE FIRST ARTIFICIAL SATELLITE, SPUTNIK 1, INTO SPACE. FOUR YEARS LATER ON APRIL 12, 1961, RUSSIAN LT. YURI GAGARIN BECAME THE FIRST HUMAN TO ORBIT EARTH IN VOSTOK 1. HIS FLIGHT LASTED 108 MINUTES, AND GAGARIN REACHED AN ALTITUDE OF 327 KILOMETERS (ABOUT 202 MILES).

THE FIRST U.S. SATELLITE, EXPLORER 1, WENT INTO ORBIT ON JAN. 31, 1958. IN 1961, ALAN SHEPARD BECAME THE FIRST AMERICAN TO FLY INTO SPACE. ON FEB. 20, 1962, JOHN GLENN'S HISTORIC FLIGHT MADE HIM THE FIRST AMERICAN TO ORBIT EARTH.

LANDING ON THE MOON

LANDING A MAN ON THE MOON AND RETURNING HIM SAFELY TO EARTH WITHIN A DECADE" WAS A NATIONAL GOAL SET BY PRESIDENT JOHN F. KENNEDY IN 1961. ON JULY 20, 1969, ASTRONAUT NEIL ARMSTRONG TOOK 'ONE GIANT LEAP FOR MANKIND" AS HE STEPPED ONTO THE MOON. SIX APOLLO MISSIONS WERE MADE TO EXPLORE THE MOON BETWEEN 1969 AND 1972.

DURING THE 1960s, UNMANNED SPACECRAFT PHOTOGRAPHED AND PROBED THE MOON BEFORE ASTRONAUTS EVER LANDED. BY THE EARLY 1970s, ORBITING COMMUNICATION AND NAVIGATION SATELLITES WERE IN EVERYDAY USE, AND THE MARINER SPACECRAFT WAS ORBITING AND MAPPING THE SURFACE OF MARS. BY THE END OF THE DECADE, THE VOYAGER SPACECRAFT HAD SENT BACK DETAILED IMAGES OF JUPITER AND SATURN, THEIR RINGS, AND THEIR MOONS.

SKYLAB, AMERICA'S FIRST SPACE STATION, WAS A HUMAN-SPACEFLIGHT HIGHLIGHT OF THE 1970s, AS WAS THE APOLO-SOYUZ TEST PROJECT, THE WORLD'S FIRST INTERNATIONALLY CREWED

(AMERICAN AND RUSSIAN) SPACE MISSION.

IN THE 1980s, SATELLITE COMMUNICATIONS EXPANDED TO CARRY TELEVISION PROGRAMS, AND PEOPLE WERE ABLE TO PICK UP THE SATELLITE SIGNALS ON THEIR HOME DISH ANTENNAS. SATELLITE DISCOVERED AN OZONE HOLE NUCLEAR POWER PLANT DISASTER AT CHERNOBYL IN 1986. ASTRONOMICAL SATELLITES FOUND NEW STARS AND GAVE US A VIEW OF THE CENTER OF OUR GALAXY.

SPACE SHUTTLE

IN APRIL 1981, THE LAUNCH OF THE SPACE SHUTTLE COLUMBIA USHERED IN A PERIOD OF RELIANCE ON THE REUSABLE SHUTTLE FOR MOST CIVILIAN AND MILITARY SPACE MISSION. TWENTY- FOUR SUCCESSFUL SHUTTLE LAUNCHES FULFILLED MANY SCIENTIFIC AND MILITARY REQUIREMENTS

UNTIL JAN.28,1986,WHEN JUST 73 SECONDS AFTER LIFTOFF, THE SPACE SHUTTLE CHALLENGER EXPLODED. THE CREW OF SEVEN WAS KILLED, INCLUDING CHRISTA MC AULIFFE,A TEACHER FROM NEW HAMPSHIRE WHO WOULD BEEN THE FIRST CIVILIAN IN SPACE.

THE COLUMBIA DISASTER WAS THE SECOND SHUTTLE TRAGEDY. ON FEB. 1, 2003 THE SHUTTLE BROKE APART WHILE REENTERING THE EARTH'S ATMOSPHERE, KILLING ALL SEVEN CREW MEMBERS. THE DISASTER OCCURRING OVER TEXAS,AND ONLY MINUTES

BEFORE IT WAS SCHEDULED TO LAND AT THE KENNEDY SPACE CENTRE. AN INVESTIGATION DETERMINED THE CATASTROPHE WAS CAUSED BY A PIECE OF FOAM INSULATION THAT BROKE OFF THE SHUTTLE'S PROPELLANT TANK AND DAMAGED THE EDGE OF THE SHUTTLE'S LEFT WING. IT WAS THE SECOND LOSS OF A SHUTTLE IN 113 SHUTTLE FLIGHTS. AFTER EACH OF THE DISASTERS, SPACE SHUTTLE FLIGHT OPERATION WERE SUSPENDED FOR MORE THAN TWO YEARS.

DISCOVERY WAS THE FIRST OF THE THREE ACTIVE SPACES SHUTTLE TO BE RETIRED, COMPLETING ITS FINAL MISSION ON MARCH 9,2011; ENDEAVOUR DID SO ON JUNE 1. THE FINAL SHUTTLE MISSION WAS COMPLETED WITH THE LANDING OF ATLANTIS ON JULY 21,2011, CLOSING THE 30- YEAR SPACE SHUTTLE PROGRAM.

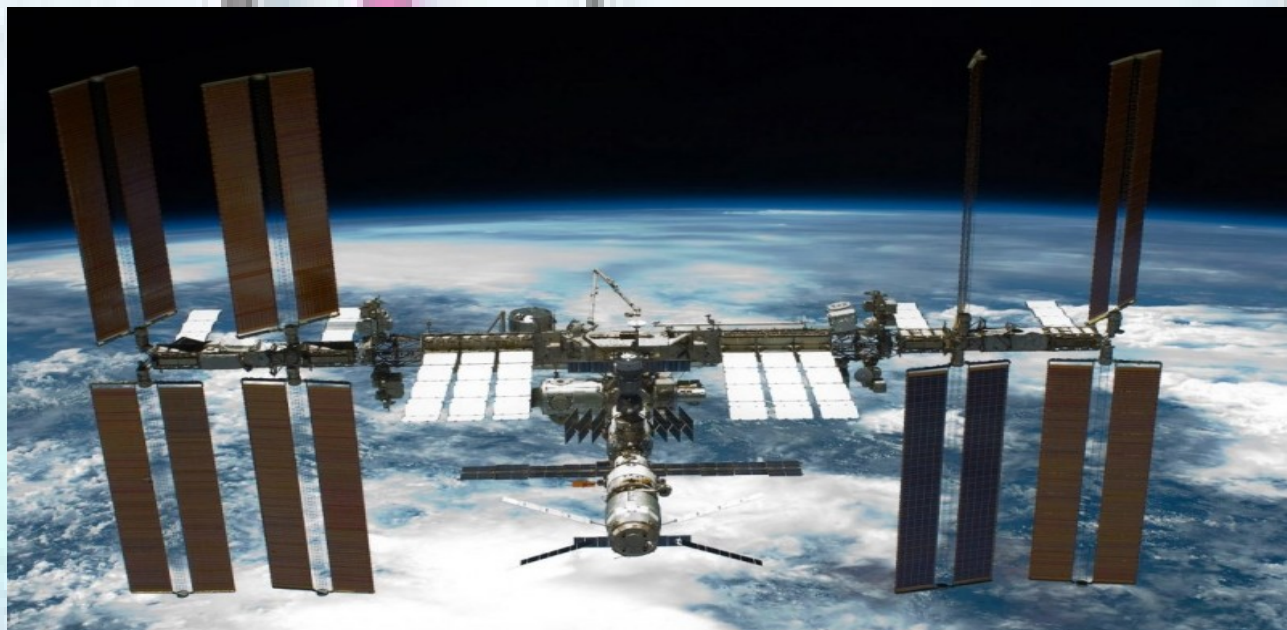

THE GULF WAR PROVED THE VALUE OF SATELLITES IN MODERN CONFLICTS. DURING THIS WAR, ALLIED FORCES WERE ABLE TO USE THEIR CONTROL OF THE "HIGH GROUND" OF SPACE TO DECISIVE ADVANTAGE. SATELLITES WERE USED TO PROVIDE INFORMATION ON ENEMY TROOP FORMATION AND MOVEMENTS, EARLY WARNING OF ENEMY MISSILE ATTACKS, AND PRECISE NAVIGATION IN THE FEATURELESS DESERT TERRAIN. THE ADVANTAGES OF SATELLITES ALLOWED THE COALITION FORCES TO QUICKLY BRING THE WAR TO A CONCLUSION, SAVING MANY LIVES.

SPACE SYSTEMS CONTINUE TO BECOME MORE AND MORE INTEGRAL TO HOMELAND DEFENCE, WEATHER SURVEILLANCE, COMMUNICATION, IMAGING, AND REMOTE SENSING FOR CHEMICALS, FIRES, AND OTHER DISASTERS.

INTERNATIONAL SPACE STATION

THE INTERNATIONAL SPACE STATION IS A RESEARCH LABORATORY IN LOW EARTH ORBIT. WITH MANY DIFFERENT PARTNERS CONTRIBUTING TO ITS DESIGN AND CONSTRUCTION, THIS HIGH-FLYING LABORATORY HAS BECOME A SYMBOL OF

COOPERATION IN SPACE EXPLORATION, WITH FORMER COMPETITORS WORKING TOGETHER.

THE FUTURE OF SPACE EXPLORATION

MODERN SPACES EXPLORATION IS REACHING AREAS ONCE ONLY DREAMED ABOUT. MARS IS FOCAL POINT OF MODERN SPACE EXPLORATION,

AND MANNED MARS EXPLORATION IS A LONG-TERM GOAL OF THE UNITED STATES. NASA IS ON A JOURNEY TO MARS, WITH A GOAL OF SENDING HUMANS TO THE RED PLANET IN 2030s

NASA AND ITS PARTNERS HAVE SENT ORBITERS, LANDERS, AND ROVERS, INCREASING OUR KNOWLEDGE ABOUT THE PLANET. THE CURIOSITY ROVER HAS GATHERED RADIATION DATA TO PROTECT ASTRONAUTS, AND THE MARS 2020 ROVER WILL STUDY THE AVAILABILITY OF OXYGEN AND OTHER MARTIAN RESOURCES.

Happy Journey.....

The giant train of the time...
I'm proud to know that
You are the driver
And I'm the passenger Train will not notice whoever the Passenger.....

It has to go on
To reach its destiny....
And passengers have to leave it
For their incomplete journey

Passengers come.....
Passengers go....!
You just go forward...
For there are some more passengers,
Who are sitting for they trust you....
Never break their journey....
Be happy with what you have;
Be happy with whom you ha

Keep going, don't waste extra time....
In the railway station....
Just pause for having more people,
Resume with new passengers....
Never bother about the troubles in
Your journey

Little
KITES

Never bother about your broken parts...
Just believe in your speed and accuracy
Only the new passengers will refresh you....
They will be black or white...
Rich or poor,
Happy or sad,
Keep going...
Keep going...
Never look back...
Happy Journey.....

DEAD LIFE

With million wounds and so much pain,
 I Can't find an umbrella in this rain.
 With a broken heart and a fake smile,
 My mirror looks like insane, when looked for a while

With a confused look, gazing at the world with swollen eyes

I search for the truth, but what i find are lies
 A farewell is organized for my everyday,
 Maybe I am dead now, maybe I was alive
 yesterday,

Lying on the bed thinking looking blankly on the walls
 A dense forest, beneath them are the two waterfalls
 A calendar mocking on me, a clock pitying,
 Are they animals, or they really human beings

With a bleeding hand I write everyday
 With a broken heart I smile everyday
 And with living dreams I die everyday

Secrets Under Trees

Tiny little secrets
Get buried in the dirt,
And if they were dug up,
Someone would probably get hurt,
So leave them safely there,
To rot amongst the leaves,
Admiring instead,
The truth in summer's green trees.

THE WAY

Card in pew pocket
announces,
“I am here”

I made only one statement
because of bad winter
Grease is the word; grease
is the way
I am feeling.

Real life emergencies or flubbing behind the scenes

As a child,
I was abandoned
in a story
made of trees.
Here’s the small gasp
of this clearing
come “upon” “again”

LIFE

Life is but an accursed blessing,
A poisoned gift, but, o, so sweet;
We crave, like famished dogs, for it
While, lethal, it prompts our dying.

It is but a traitorous steed
-Which hope to flee death makes us ride-
Taking us to that other side
Of existence with wicked speed.

And all happiness we're given,
Parsimonious benevolence,
Is soon to die—malevolence—
For our suffering to worsen.

Why, then, are we so desirous
Of a thing so ignominious?
Whence, then, comes our great attraction:
Naive hope or apprehension?

Perhaps life is a blessed curse,
A fortunate malediction
With joy in soothing succession to rage
Till comes time for the hearse,

A guide too full of probity
Taking us tour her city-earth
Who shows places of wealth and mirth
As well as slums and paucity.

A TRUE FRIENDSHIP

One day there were two good friends. Ramu and Chotu. They work together in every works. One day they both went to jungle to collect some fruits. They started their journey happily. They reached at jungle and collect maximum fruits. Ramu collected forty eight fruits and Chotu collected forty fruits. While returning back to home, they stopped near a tree and take rest. Ramu went in to sleep. At this time Chotu changed the fruits basket and took Ramu's basket. After some time, Ramu woke up and took his basket and he shocked. He told to Chotu that the basket in Chotu's hand is his basket. But Chotu didn't agree. They quarreled each other and returned to home with his eyes filled. His mother asked him what is his problem. He described everything. At that time his mother said; "My dear son good friends are god's gift, so you both should be god's gift". The next day they meet and Chotu realized his fault. He apologized to Ramu and both mixed up their fruits and eat happily.

A Refugee

Alone I search for a shadow
The immortal search of mortal beings
Search here, search there,
Found no where.
Need a shadow to duplicate
Whining out to the nature,
Under sun, under moon
Reached no where
I, a refugee, helpless create
Neither the nature nor the social being,
gave me a hand to escape.
Found an artificial shadow once
But was like spectral flame
Trapped in it, an eternal trap,
Search for shadow, far more
Finally, found a shadow,
Return to my Books

WINGS

I would soar in the sky
As high as I could
Glide along the river banks
As fast as I could
Kiss the mountain peaks
Taste the fresh snow
Bathe in icy cold water
At the mouth of the perennials
Perch on the tallest treetops
And savor the landscapes
Dive into the deepest gorges
Close to the Earth's center
Escape this rat-race
Live on my own terms
The constant hum of this mad rush
Will be a distant blip in my radar
Fly with the birds, my friends
To the farthest of places
Far, far away
beyond anybody's reaches
If only I had wings..

FRIENDSHIP

“A Friendship is a window through which we can see the word ”

A True friendship makes our life loveable and liveable.

Much of one’s happiness in life depends on the choice of his/her friends. A Friend can make the predicaments of life bearable and quite enjoyable.

“FRIENDSHIP” is like standing on wet cement..... the longer you stay the harder it is to leave and you can never go without leaving your footprints. A Faithful friend is a brother, sister, counsellor all in one. In fact a faithful friend is the strongest defence that man can have

“Sacrifice everything for a friend, but do not sacrifice a friend for Anything ”

Nowadays we are not ready to sacrifice for others. Situations have made us more selfish.

A Developed friendship is a rare commodity indeed these days.

HISTORY OF EDUCATION IN INDIA.....

Indian education history is very rich and motivating. In the ancient days, Gurus and scholars impart education orally, but after the development of letters, it took the form of writing. Palm leaves and barks of trees were used for teaching, and this in turn helped in spreading of written literature. Temples and community centres often took the role of school. When Buddhism spread in India, education became available to every one and this was the time when some world famous educational institutions were established like Nalanda, Vikramashila and Takshashila. History has taken particular care to give Nalanda University, which flourished from fifth to 13th century AD, full credit for its brilliance. This university had around 10,000 resident students and teachers on its roll at the one time. These students included Chinese, Sri Lankan, Korean and other incame international scholars. It was in the 1th century that the Muslims recognized elementary and security schools. This led to the forming of few universities too at cities like Delhi, Lucknow and Allahabad. Medieval period saw excellent interaction between Indian and Islamic customs in all fields of knowledge like theology, religion, philosophy, fine arts, painting, architecture, arithmetic, medicine and astronomy. Later, when British arrived in India, English education came into being with the help of the European missionaries. Since then Western education gained advances in the country. With hundreds of universities and thousands of colleges affiliated to them, India has positioned itself happily as a country that provides superiority higher education to its people in specific and to the world in general.

ENVIRONMENTAL POLLUTION

Environmental pollution is the surroundings in which we live. But the contamination of our environment by pollutants is environmental pollution. The current stage of the earth that we are seeing is the cause of centuries of exploitation of the earth and its resources.

Moreover, the earth cannot restore its balance because of environmental pollution. The human force has created and destroyed life on earth. Human plays a vital role in the degradation of the environment.

Effect of pollution on the health

The environmental pollution, directly and indirectly, affects the lives of the humans and other species. These living beings co-existed on the earth with human from centuries.

Effect on air

Carbon and dust particles string up with the air in the form of smog, damaging respiratory system, haze and smoke. These are caused by the emission of industrial and manufacturing units by burning of fossil fuels, vehicle combustion of carbon fumes.

Moreover, these factors affect the immune system of birds which become a carrier of viruses and infections.

Besides, it also effects the body system and body organs.

Effects Land, Soil and foods

Human's organic and chemical both waste harm the land and soil with its decomposition. Also, it introduces some chemical in the soil and water. Land and soil pollution mainly caused by the use of pesticides, fertilizers, soil erosion, and crop residues.

DARKNESS

*When I go to sleep
 I thinking of you
 without any consciousness
 and I am so happy about it but i didn't like your darkness eyes
 because it hides your sadness
 and it hides cheap fantasy and it brights the grimy face
 I like the dark face of you because it give me wonder full dreams and i like the dark face of you because it gives me peacefull night it leads to bright and to the beautifull twinkling stars and it leads to danger of happy.....-HADI MOHAMED.K*

Travel

Travel! a word which make our mind cool. Everyone likes to travel a lot travel can also be called as a big cure for the of your mind. Everyone forgets their all problems while travelling.

Hanya was also such a girl. she was just eighteen. she had so many problems in her family. Her father and mother were divorced. Her brother was a drug addict, her mother is a busy surgeon. In that big house she was alone. Her only friend is her cousin ram. He was her father, mother, brother and all.

One day when he came home she poured her sadness on him. "why am living? There s no meaning for my life." He just smiling at her and said her that he will take her to a place in the next day. She was astonished and was very happy. The travel was fixed on a condition put forward by ram, not to speak anything until they reach at the destination. She promised him that she will not ask anything to him.

Next morning at 6 o' clock then start their journey. The bike was moving fast. Her hairs which were floating in the wind spread across her face. She felt extreme happiness. He kept on going. She was about to ask him the destination and she remembered her promise. At last he stopped the bike. She noticed that it was 8 pm then. She was starving with hunger. She saw a dark road in front of her. She said that the way is too short and it's good to walk and she agreed to it. They walked along the road and when they reach a point, he said to close her eyes. She closed her eyes and walked. Then in a soft voice he said her to open her eyes. She could see a colony of huts. She asked what it is? He explained her that it was a prosperous village of that district but a storm changed their life. But they are still happy and believed that they are blessed. He continued,

“ my dear i know your problems, you are charming youth. You can do many things from the society. You know this is not the problem of this village alone, but most of the villages are facing a lot of problems. I think you can do something for them. You will find solution for your problems there.”

That was a trip which changed her life. She started to visit such places and involved in teaching and serving the poor villagers.

INSEPARABLE COMPANION

Once in the heat of the sun,

Days that passed with colourful and dark shadows...

Were those dreams..?

Were those my imaginations..?

One they were with me,

Now left me leaving foot prints,

Leaving my whole life into a deep darkness...

They grow big and small,

portraying myself.

Many a day passed

In summer and winters

But my only friend,

My shadow was with me,

In all my pains and gains.

It joined me with no.

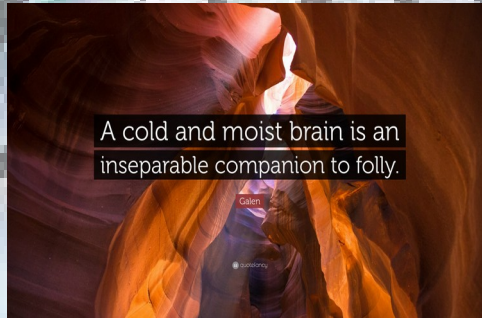

A true friend is one who never deserts you and is your inseparable companion in the time of happiness and sorrow.

– Priyanka Dasari

NATIONALISM

At times, I used to ruminate,
What position I have right now
Disappointed in this hubbub, I search,
Through the remnants of me,
Fallen here and there ,
Where I had once been.
I remembered those days,
When the people fought for me,
Where I was know to many.
Slowly, I began to emerge,
Where fragmants of me;
Stacked into people hearts,
Whom they will never let go.
Depressed, I felt
As the days went by;
Making the earth even darker
Now,no onre knows I even exist.
Shocked, I am making
Myself believe that,
They are erasing me bit by bit
With imprudent rules and fortunes.
And at last I will ever search for me
Because, at times;
I will be an alien to there
And for me;
Humanity will be unknown.

NATURE'S MUSIC

I love nature's music
and summer time songs
in the forest her great singers
gather in throngs

the wind plays the harp
and the bird take the tune
the bass part is sung
by the man in the moon!

Each one knows their part to the last letter!

And even our radio
doesn't sound any better!

Oh, My Sweet Heart.....

One day my heart struck work
I took it to the cardiologist
He made me work on the tread mill
I perspired when I trod
Then he fixed some probes on my bosom
And showed me some blocks in my arteries
He over my faulty heart confined in a computer disk
A second opinion confirmed that I was severely under the clutches of Coronary after disease
Oh my 30th wedding anniversary
I was bed ridden in the hospital
I underwent an emergency balloon surgery
Putting to stents in blocked arteries
Which helped the free flow of Blood to my broken heart
Recently my mended heart gave
Me an admonition of author block
Oh, my weak heart, are you fed up
With the obstructions in your path
Thank you my sweet heart for
Your timely reminder

A BOOK LOVER'S PRAYER.....

Let the pages be ever turning

Let the words run on and on

My...my eyes be ever reading

My imagination, ever strong.

Let my mind remain wide open

To the discoveries within

May i never lose this passion

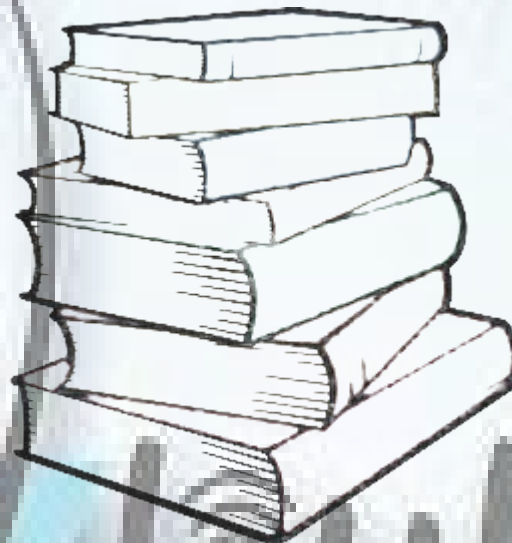

For a story to begin.

My the stories, they be plentiful

May i find my crazy nook

To ever read and carry on

The love of a good book.

An Inebriates Manifesto

I remember the first time I met you,
I was embarrassed to be my self,
You approached me with open arms,
You made me feel that nothing else matter.

You came as a sentinel in my solitude,
And left me when my life got trodden,
When my drams got perished,
When my features got blistered.

It was late when I opened my eyes,
When the mask of you fell off;
I realised that I was numb,
I realised that I'm toxicated.

I was looked up in a room of darkness,
My hands were tied up with a bond of ferocity,
All my hopes were buried in the sledge of torment,
Wings of my freedom were burned.

You manipulated my emotions with your devilish grin,
You made me go astray with your dreadful smirk,
You pushed people who really loved me,
You made me do what I shouldn't do.

I can't carry this burden any more,
I'm sober, You're done with me.
I'm invincible, You can't haunt me any more,
I'm solemn, it's time for you to apart from me.

MILES TO GO.....

ITS TWENTY THOUSAND FOUR HUNDRED AND FIFTY TWO,
SHADOWS OF TREES, I HAD MET
MOUNTAINS THAT CRAWLED
UNCOUNTABLE MEMORIES MY
GAINFUL FIRST STEP
STOOD ON THE MOUNTAIN PEAK
I SWEAT WHOLLY;
COUNTED REMAINING PEAKS THAT I
NEED TO SWEAT
THE DWARF TREES, I USED TO TAKE REST AND GIANT PILLAR TREES
WONDERED ME,
HOW WATER GOES CONTINUOUSLY
HILLS INFERIOR
THAT AM MINUTE IN WORLD
MOUNTAINS AROUSE PRIDE AND WHEN
TRIUMPH COVERED WITH FURIOUS JOY
NUMEROUS MOUNTAINS AGAIN AND,
AGAIN, SEARCHED FOR END
