I. Read the extract from the story ' Vanka ' and answer the questions that follow

Vanka raised his eyes to the dark window - pane , in which the reflection of the candle flickered , and in this imagination distinctly saw his grandfather, konstantin Makarich, who was a night watchman on the estate of some gentlefolk called Zhivarev. He was a small , lean, old man about sixty- five, but remarkably lively and agile, with smiling face and eyes bleary with drink. In the daytime he either slept in the back kitchen, or sat joking with the cook and the kitchen-maids, and in the night , wrapped in a great sheepskin coat, he walked round and round the estate, sounding his rattle. After him, with drooping heads, went old Kashtanka and another dog, called Eel, on account of his black coat and long, weasel - like body. Eel was wonderfully respectful and insinuating, and turned the same appealing glance on friends and strangers alike , but he inspired confidence in no one. He was an adept at stealing up to snap a foot, creeping in to the ice - house, or snatching a peasant's chicken.
