

DREAM OF A REFUGEE: REFUGEE WITHIN US

Dream of a refugee

Over it gleams, well hued rays you glorified veiling those ecstatic memories as the eyes of refugee shut, vowing hope, relishing upon them.

Alas! an unsung warrior, galloping through this epiphany

Birds of eternal spirits swarmed

Life is never fair, muxmusing viciously as they loathed, penetrated, devouring the blood and tears of vitality

Born in the arms of divinity sacred souls ahead of hearts

In this slumber, cradled with dreams, a refugee rests within all of us.

Oh! euphenous it sounds cry of search, cry of help echoing in those realms humanity willing to leave, the blood they shed, wounds they killed lives they loathed, still resonates, deafening, souls bleeding.

Again presenting guidance sunlight in its mighty shines upon the path frozen hearts rejuvenating encompassing tranquility bestowed upon nature trailing back to the only refuge warm earth, beneath our feet so near yet so ethereal.

Lime-tinted skies of hope calling the souls resting upon, to turn back, assessing mistakes swearing, vowing to learn from nature.
Soon melancholic verses will be heard hearts and souls revealed to the ethereal refuge, our home
