

Glowing Darkness:

That darkest day, cloudy night, tears fall up in the ground with a deep silence. Her hand was very weak, but she look up my hands. She heard ~~my~~ the first cry of mine with a deep smile. She hold ^{me} up with her purest blood. A watery arrow fall upon me ~~with~~, a feathery touch.

Her lips touched my cheeks, "Welcome Ruby to this World." My smile lead her to a new world. The clouds ~~fall~~ fall tears, the darkness blessed with a light, the beating sound welcome me to this world.

She entered her ~~pat~~ house with my hand holding tightly. The gate was opened, leg started moving with a beat falling in the ground. She saw the Man who called first her ~~was~~ name. Father! His eyes raised up, ~~looking~~ ~~his~~ ~~face~~ and started speaking out with a loud voice, "Who are you?" I'm... Slowly her eyes fall on the ground. The steps started moving backward. The door closed up!

The darkness entered her eyes, But she found the light on my lips. The head pulled up and the ~~was~~ beat started running faster. She left the ~~eye~~ Gold for this ~~di~~ silver. Her dreams broken, ~~into~~ her ~~was~~ family left. Someone murmured to her "You are Alone... Alone... A..l..O..N..E!"

Her voice shouted up, "No! My daughter, my tears, my ~~was~~ life is my each stone. I will stand and will fight against my fate." I am ready to shrink, to glow my daughter. The fire in her eyes flamed up.

She choose me from the Golden life. Why? Still, I don't know. She followed my life and showed up the path. She was a darkness but it's a glowing darkness. That day when I saw her lost tears again, ^{because of} that question ~~did~~. Mother, Who is my Father? She told many unspoken words by ~~that~~ her eyes, his eyes started filling up ~~with~~.

His heart started weeping, she closed her room.

Time passed, The moon raised up to give a my dreams.
The hands touched my shoulder, her voice touched my ears and ~~and~~ come, dinner is ready. The food was served on in one plate, she came and sat ~~near~~ near to me. She took rice in her hand and faced towards my mouth. The delicious food i ever had. ~~the~~

Too late to go to bed, but still looking on her face ~~and~~, hoping that ~~my~~ the answer of my question will be spoken up. She took my hand in her palm and looking at my eyes. I was blank to say anything. She called up 'Daughter', 'My dear'. My time is over, It's your time, Your life, Your day. My life beat was paused by some. But you are free to fly. ~~the~~ ~~and~~ A dark night took my life, But a dark night give me a reason to leave. Go, your dreams are calling you. Good Night... she stepped to her room.

The beam of light falled upon the window, reflecting with a rainbow colour on my cheeks. slowly opening my eyes to see a new morning with more colour and lessons. The last day of my course. Some more hour left to enter my new life, my dream. The ~~room~~ door opened, I think she was left for her job, started moving ~~to~~ towards the main door. It's time for my journey, The first holder in the ~~whole~~ whole institute is "Ruby". My name ~~was~~ announced, Where is 'she' looking for that face. My speech was whole about my Mother. A large amount of flowers falled upon her as a blast. But where is she.

The Door of my heaven was still closed, I ~~off~~ opened it with a surprise, but she was not there. The smile pulled down, my eyes was gradually closing to fall on sleep. Again ~~the~~ a dark night came up. I stepped up on her room, saw a letter, written with lots of love and tears. The ink was spread so badly; till this second i can't read that letter. Waiting for that day to open that letter and read her last words.....

I don't know why she left me, But i know one thing she was my "shade" to highlight the "silver".....
